Solutions :-

Sol.1.(d) ECDB

Sentence A gives the time of occurrence of the festival. Sentence E states that the Bihu festival was fast approaching & Sentence C states that the atmosphere would be much feasting and merriment during the festival. So, C will follow E. Further, Sentence D states that each household would build a mejhi & Sentence B states that the mejhi would be set alight invoking the blessings of Agni. So, B will follow D. Going through the options, option 'd' has the correct sequence.

Sol.2.(a) CBDE

Sentence C will follow Sentence A as it describes the experience of being the only girl in the course when studying engineering. And, Sentence B states the common question people ask about how she managed. So, B will follow C. Further, Sentence D states that it wasn't very difficult & Sentence E states the initial challenges faced as the only girl in the class. So, E will follow D. Going through the options, option 'a' has the correct sequence.

Sol.3.(a) CBAD

Sentence C will be the starting line as it introduces the main idea of the parajumble, i.e 'receiving advice from mothers before marriage.' And, Sentence B states the common advice given to brides about adjusting to their new life. So, B will follow C. Further, Sentence A talks about the same advice received from her mother, Vimala Kulkarni & Sentence D states that her mother said something which helped her immensely in later life. So, D will follow A. Going through the options, option (a) has the correct sequence.

Sol.4.(c) ABDC

Sentence A will be the starting line as it introduces the main idea of the parajumble, i.e 'having seen many houses but keeping a vivid memory of one.' And, Sentence B provides the description of that particular house. So, B will follow A. Further, Sentence D adds more details about the appearance of the house & Sentence C describes the surroundings of the cottage. So, C will follow D. Going through the options, option (c) has the correct sequence.

Sol.5.(d) DBCA

Sentence D will follow S1 as it states the general idea of a vacation being a welcome break from the monotonous daily routine. And Sentence B states the excitement about going on a vacation to Goa. So, B will follow D. Further, Sentence C states the decision to retire early for the night & Sentence A states that destiny had other plans. So, A will follow C. Going through the options, option (d) has the correct sequence.

Sol.6.(c) CADB

Sentence C will follow S1 as it states the consequence of examining the leaves of the tea plants noticed by Robert Bruce near Rangpur. And Sentence A states that the species found was similar to that grown in Chinese tea gardens. So, A will follow C. Further, Sentence D introduces Mr. Maniram Dewan as the first Indian tea planter who established the commercial plantation & Sentence B mentions that by 1862, the Assam tea industry comprised around 160 gardens. So, B will follow D. Going through the options, option (c) has the correct sequence.

Sol.7.(a) ACDB

Sentence A will be the starting line as it introduces the main idea of the parajumble, i.e "the Egyptians' belief in the importance of the body and soul". And, Sentence C states the funerary practices designed to assist the deceased in the afterlife. So, C will follow A. Further, Sentence D talks about the tombs being filled with various items & Sentence B states the purpose of these practices – ensuring the soul's return to the body for a happy afterlife. So, B will follow D. Going through the options, option (a) has the correct sequence.

Sol.8.(d) BCED

Sentence A gives the time of occurrence of the event. And, Sentence B introduces the main subject of the parajumble, i.e. Voldyrev, a tall country gentleman. So, B will follow A. Further, Sentence C states the question asked by Voldyerv to the porter and Sentence E states the answer to his question. So, E will follow C. Sentence D concludes the parajumble by stating that Voldyrev went towards the window. Going through the options, option (d) has the correct sequence.

Sol.9.(b) CADB

Sentence C will be the starting line as it introduces the main idea of the parajumble, i.e 'many great inventions are initially mocked and not believed in.' And, Sentence A states an example of the innovation that was initially treated like this. So, A will follow C. Further, Sentence D talks about the excitement of most people when they heard about the first power flight & Sentence B states a contradictory fact that some people did not like the idea of flying a plane. So, B will follow D. Going through the options, option (b) has the correct sequence.

Sol.10.(b) BADC

Sentence B will follow the first sentence as it states what kind of photographer Nicholas is. Sentence A states the process used by Nicholas to click photographs in the mid-air & Sentence D states that he learnt this unique style of photography during a trip to India. So, D will follow A. Further, Sentence C states that he was fascinated by the kites flying and decided to tie photography with kite flying. And, the sixth sentence concludes the parajumble by stating his success as one of the most well-known kite aerial photographers. Going through the options, option (b) has the correct sequence.

Sol.11.(a) BDAC

Sentence B will be the starting line as it states the time of occurrence of the event. And, Sentence D states that a woman stopped at a flower shop to buy flowers for her mother. So, D will follow B. Further, Sentence A states that the woman, being a busy person, had no time to visit her mother & Sentence C states that the woman thought her mother would be happy to receive the flowers. So, C will follow A. Going through the options, option (a) has the correct sequence.

Q.12. Select the option that arranges the given words to form a grammatically correct and meaningful sentence.

The students eagerly their awaited results.

SSC CGL Tier II (26/10/2023)

- (a) The students their eagerly awaited results.
- (b) The awaited eagerly results their students.
- (c) Eagerly awaited the students their results.
- (d) The students eagerly awaited their results.

Solutions :-

Sol.12.(d) The students eagerly awaited their results.

"Subject + Verb + Object" is the correct grammatical structure of an affirmative sentence. The position of the adverb may not be fixed. 'The students' is the subject, 'awaited' is the verb and 'their results' is the object. The sentence given in option (d) follows this structure. Hence, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.

Further, Sentence A will be followed by Sentence B as it states that first, Amit moved his fingers on the surface of the mirror, but it felt different. Then, 'B' will be followed by 'C' as it states that he then touched his face, it appeared strange and was like touching someone else's face. Going through the options, option c has the correct sequence.

Sol.206.(a) DCBA

'D' will be the first Sentence as 'Mohan wasted no time' in sentence D refers to 'Both the boys were bleeding profusely' which is mentioned in Sentence 1. However, sentence D will be followed by Sentence C as it states that with the help of some passers-by, he picked them up and immediately took them to a hospital in his car. Further, Sentence C will be followed by Sentence B as it states that he informed their family members using one of the boys' mobile phone. Then, 'B' will be followed by 'A' as it states that the timely help saved the lives of the boys who were ashamed of their actions after meeting Mohan. Going through the options, option a has the correct sequence.

Sol.207.(b) DACB

Sentence D will be the starting line as it contains the main idea of the parajumble i.e. News goes through a series of interconnected stages. However, Sentence A states that first it is received by the sub-editors through the correspondents, the reporters, and via the news agencies. So, A will follow D. Further, Sentence C states that the sub-editors then examine the news and reword it, if needed and Sentence B states that next it is passed on to the chief sub-editor who thoroughly checks the matter again and makes changes, if necessary. So, B will follow C. Going through the options, option b has the correct sequence.
